SEYBERT, District Judge:

Pending before the Court is Magistrate Judge Gary R. Brown's Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), recommending that this Court confirm the subject arbitration award, award Petitioners interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and compel Respondents and their officers to make available all books and records necessary for Petitioners to conduct an audit. (R&R, Docket Entry 14.) For the following reasons, the Court ADOPTS Judge Brown's R&R in its entirety.

BACKGROUND

This action was commenced on June 30, 2015, by petitioner Trustees of Empire State Carpenters Annuity, Apprenticeship, Labor-Management Cooperation, Pension and Welfare Funds ("Petitioners" or the "Funds"). Petitioners, employer and employee trustees of multiemployer labor-management trust funds labor management cooperation committee, allege that LILCO Construction Inc. and LILCO Construction Corporation (collectively, "Respondents") failed to contributions to the Funds in contravention of a collective bargaining agreement (the "CBA"). (Am. Pet., Docket Entry 5, ¶¶ 4-5, 7-13.) Petitioners allege that arbitration was initiated pursuant to the CBA, and the arbitrator awarded Petitioners the $146,465.71 (the "Award"). (Am. Pet. ¶¶ sum of 16-18.) Petitioners aver that Respondents have "failed to abide by the Award." (Am. Pet. ¶ 19.)

On June 23, 2016, the undersigned referred Petitioner's Amended Petition to Confirm Arbitration Award (the "Amended Petition") to Judge Brown for an R&R on whether the Amended Petition should be granted. (Docket Entry 13.) On June 30, 2016, Judge Brown issued his R&R recommending that the Court: (1) confirm the Award; (2) award Petitioners judgment against Respondents in the sum of $146,465.71, along with (a) interest of 0.75% per month on delinquent contributions from the date of the Award through the date of judgment, (b) interest on attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the arbitration at 10% per year from the date of the Award through the date of judgment, and (c) attorneys' fees and costs totaling $1,323.40; and (3) issue an Order compelling Respondents and its officers to make available to Petitioners or their authorized representatives all books and records that Petitioners deem necessary to conduct an audit. (R&R at 3.)

DISCUSSION

In reviewing an R&R, a district court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings and recommendations made by the magistrate judge." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). If no timely objections have been made, the "court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record." Urena v. New York, 160 F. Supp. 2d 606, 609-10 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). Objections were due within fourteen days of service of the R&R.

The time for filing objections has expired, and no party has objected. Accordingly, all objections are hereby deemed to have been waived. Upon careful review and consideration, the Court finds Judge Brown's R&R to be comprehensive, well-reasoned, and free of clear error, and it ADOPTS the R&R in its entirety.

CONCLUSION

Judge Brown's R&R (Docket Entry 14) is ADOPTED in its entirety. The Award is CONFIRMED and Petitioners are awarded:

(1) judgment against Respondents in the sum of $146,465.71;

(2) interest of 0.75% per month on delinquent contributions from the date of the Award through the date of judgment; (3) interest on attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the arbitration at 10% per year from the date of the Award through the date of judgment; and (4) attorneys' fees and costs totaling $1,323.40.

Respondents are directed to make available to Petitioners or their authorized representatives all books and records that Petitioners deem necessary to conduct an audit within ninety (90) days of the date of this Memorandum and Order.

Petitioners are directed to serve a copy of this

Memorandum and Order on Respondents and file proof of service on

ECF. The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly and mark this case CLOSED.

SO ORDERED.
